BADGES & BREAKTHROUGHS
3419 STONEBRIDGE DR
WALDORF, MD 20601

April 29, 2026

We assigned you an employer identification number (EIN)

Your EIN is 42-2225563. The name control associated with this EIN is BADG.

What you need to do

- If you did not apply for this EIN, visit IRS.gov/EINNotRequested.
- Use this EIN and your name exactly as they appear above when you fill out your tax returns. Otherwise, it may cause delays. Keep a copy of this notice for your records because we'll only send it to you once. You can share a copy with future officers of your organization or anyone asking for proof of your EIN. If your name or address is incorrect as shown, send the correct information to the address at the top of this notice.

What you need to know

When you applied for an EIN, you said your organization is a non-profit. Getting an EIN doesn't mean you're automatically tax-exempt. You must apply specifically for tax-exempt status. You can find more information about the application process in Publication 557, Tax-Exempt Status for Your Organization.

To apply for recognition of tax-exempt status, organizations must complete an application on one of the following forms:

- Form 1023, Application for Recognition of Exemption Under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code;
- Form 1023-EZ, Streamlined Application for Recognition of Exemption Under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code;
- Form 1024, Application for Recognition Under Section 501(a); or
- Form 1024-A, Application for Recognition of Exemption Under Section 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Most organizations claiming tax-exempt status must file a Form 990 series annual information return (Form 990, 990-EZ, or 990-PF) or notice (Form 990-N) beginning with the year they legally form, even if they have not yet applied for or received recognition of tax-exempt status.

If you become tax-exempt, you'll lose that status if you don't file a required return or notice for three years in a row. There are some exceptions, but generally, you need to file every year. We start counting those three years from the date we gave you your EIN. If the first tax year isn't a full twelve months, you still need to file a return for that year. If your organization didn't legally form in the same tax year you received your EIN, contact us.
